The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinknam's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it tould not produce such marvelous results along sick and ailing women.

Sults among sick and ailing women.

Deer Mrs. Pinkham:—

"About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with womb trouble, which caused me severe pain extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor falled to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vogetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottless of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid uterine tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain; and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 3d Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Death of Boxing Instructor. New York, Feb. 10 .- Benjamin Van Slyke, the boxing instructor, died Wednesday. He was 87 years old. He had chewed tobacco since he was 9 years old. At 10 he smoked a pipe. He had been a steady drinker of milk and whisky since he was a boy. He has taught 5,000 men how to box. "Old Ben Van Slyke," as he was familiarly known, had been an instructor in boxing on Broad-way for fifty years. His pupils included bankers, brokers, actors and professional men, and at one time his assistant was Mike Donovan, now instructor to Presi-dent Roosevelt. Van Slyke was hale and hearty up to within a few weeks of his death. "Professor" Van Slyke met and had the personal friendship of the greatest prize-fighting champions.

Franklin, Pa., Feb. 10 .- A scar on the right wrist, the result of a wound re-ceived in a cavalry charge in the Franco-Prussian war, was the principal means of establishing the identity of John Demorin, a native of France, who died a pauper in the hospital here last Friday. Demorip, who was 67 years old, came here three weeks ago. He was suffering from exposure and was taken to the hospital. Before he died he gave the matron the name of a friend, who came here vesterday and identified the body through the scar on the wrist. He said Demorin was a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, and was the sole heir of a fortune of $60,000 in France. An effort will be made to find the dead man's relatives, if he has any.

DISORDERS IN RUSSIA.

The strikers in several of the principa every precaution.

Strikers attacked the workers in the electric station at Sosnovice. Troops fired from the windows of the plant, wounding many people. The situation in St. Petersburg is much disturbed, but the military force is sufficient to awe rioters. Eight battalions of infantry, eight squadrons of cavalry and one regiment of Cossacks are now in the town.
At the Coats thread mills and many prepared to fire and for a moment the situation was extremely grave, but the managers finally rielded and agreed to pay, providing the men promised to return to work on Monday. Another manager refused payment to the strikers, but at the point of a revolver was compelled to promise payment today.

There were seriouse disturbances yesterday at Pabianice. The troops fired on the workmen, killing one and wounding two. Pabianice is on the Dobrzynka river, and is the seat of cotton, woolen and wall paper manufacturers. The majority of millowners, in Lodz, Russia, "paid off" their workmen yes-terday. The most remarkable incident of this most remarkable strike is that the masters owed the men nothing, but three days' wages were given as an advance, the strike therefore being kept going with the money of the employers, against whom the strike was ostensibly

Not all the millowners were willing to pay the strikers. At Baron Heintzel's mill a threatening crowd assembled and demanded to see the proprietor. The officer in command of the military ordered them to disperse within 10 minutes, otherwise he would use weapons. When the time expired the crowd refused to move, and the officer ordered his men to load their guns. Women rushed from the crowd and threw back their shawls to expose their breasts to the bullets. A small boy produced a wooden crucifix bearing the words. "This is the only wespon we have."

Just as the soldiers were about to fire Baron Heintzel appeared, and to prevent bloodshed he paid four rubles (about $3) head.

Terrorism also is at work. M. Stelgert, a millowner employing 600 persons, refused to pay the strikers. Later he was visited by four strangers, who drew revolvers and threatened to kill him it he did not give his word of honor to pay the work people this morning. They warned him if he applied for help to the military he would be a dead man inside of four days. The men were not Ludz workmen, but probably emissaries of the revolutionary committee.
